ERIN OLESEN OF UNIONVILLE, CT RECEIVES NATIONAL DEMOLITION ASSN. SCHOLARSHIP

DOYLESTOWN, PA, JUNE 5, 2009 – Erin Olesen of Unionville, CT, a graduate of Miss Porter’s School in Farmington, has been named the recipient of the National Demolition Association Scholarship, valued at $7,500.

“We’re pleased to present this scholarship to Erin, who has demonstrated a commitment to serve the local community while maintaining a high level of academic achievement,” said Michael R. Taylor, CAE, Executive Director of the National Demolition Association. Olesen was nominated for the scholarship by Manafort Brothers, Inc., Plainville, CT, and plans to attend college in the fall.

The National Demolition Association is a non-profit trade organization representing more than 1,100 U.S. and Canadian companies and many international firms that are involved in the demolition process. Membership includes demolition contractors, general contractors, civil engineering firms, and recycling, landfill, and salvage operations. The Association’s efforts help members stay abreast of environmental, regulatory and safety matters, keep regulators informed about issues facing the industry, increase public and industry awareness, and provide members with networking opportunities and information on the latest technical advances in equipment and services.
