JULIE ADAMO OF BLOOMFIELD HILLS RECEIVES NATIONAL DEMOLITION ASSN. SCHOLARSHIP

DOYLESTOWN, PA, JUNE 5, 2009 – Julie Adamo of Bloomfield Hills, MI, a graduate of Marian High School, has been named the recipient of the Bill and Wanda Baker Scholarship from the National Demolition Association, valued at $7,500.

“We’re pleased to present this scholarship to Julie, who has demonstrated a commitment to serve the local community while maintaining a high level of academic achievement,” said Michael R. Taylor, CAE, Executive Director of the National Demolition Association. Adamo was nominated for the scholarship by Adamo Demolition Co., Detroit, and plans to attend college in the fall.

The National Demolition Association is a non-profit trade organization representing more than 1,100 U.S. and Canadian companies and many international firms that are involved in the demolition process. Membership includes demolition contractors, general contractors, civil engineering firms, and recycling, landfill, and salvage operations. The Association’s efforts help members stay abreast of environmental, regulatory and safety matters, keep regulators informed about issues facing the industry, increase public and industry awareness, and provide members with networking opportunities and information on the latest technical advances in equipment and services.
