PAMELA KIRKPATRICK OF HATFIELD RECEIVES NATIONAL DEMOLITION ASSN. SCHOLARSHIP

DOYLESTOWN, PA, JUNE 5, 2009 – Pamela Rose Kirkpatrick of Hatfield, PA, a graduate of North Penn High School, has been named the recipient of the National Demolition Association Scholarship, valued at $7,500.

“We’re pleased to present this scholarship to Pamela, who has demonstrated a commitment to serve the local community while maintaining a high level of academic achievement,” said Michael R. Taylor, CAE, Executive Director of the National Demolition Association, based in Doylestown. Kirkpatrick was nominated for the scholarship by Haines & Kibblehouse, Inc., Skippack, PA, and plans to attend college in the fall.

The National Demolition Association is a non-profit trade organization representing more than 1,100 U.S. and Canadian companies and many international firms that are involved in the demolition process. Membership includes demolition contractors, general contractors, civil engineering firms, and recycling, landfill, and salvage operations. The Association’s efforts help members stay abreast of environmental, regulatory and safety matters, keep regulators informed about issues facing the industry, increase public and industry awareness, and provide members with networking opportunities and information on the latest technical advances in equipment and services.
