Shopping	Queen Street 	Queen Street cuts east/west through Toronto and morphs from funky retro to chic shops and restaurants to antique shopping to The Beaches district at the far east end. Especially famous for attracting shoppers is Queen Street West (University Avenue to Spadina Avenue): Edgy, hip, and trendy all describe this area of Toronto that also boasts some of the best-known clubs and cafes. The Queen Street West area has, in fact, become so popular that the truly bohemian have moved even further west to what is now known as West Queen West (between Bathurst Street and Niagara Street).
Shopping	Shops around Bloor-Yorkville 1200 Bay St 	The Yorkville neighborhood is a delightful anomaly in the midst of Toronto high-rises and shopping malls. Tucked into a pocket of downtown, the quaint Victorian architecture in Yorkville houses dozens of restaurants, boutiques, and art galleries. Bloor Street runs adjacent to Yorkville and features shopping that is upscale and includes high-end names like Holt Renfrew, Prada, Hermes, and Gucci.	https://www.bloor-yorkville.com/
Shopping	Kensington Market 	Kensington Market is a favorite area in Toronto. If you're someone who wants to get away from high-rises and department stores, Kensington Market offers a nice respite from the usual big commercial trappings. Adjacent to Chinatown, Kensington Market has a plethora of retro shops, cheap and used clothing stores, cool cafes, furniture shops, great restaurants, and a variety of ethnic and organic produce stores.
Shopping	St. Lawrence Market 	Close to downtown and central to the historic St. Lawrence neighborhood, St. Lawrence Market includes the South Market, which has over 50 specialty food vendors and a gallery on the second floor, and the North Market, which carries on a tradition of over a century of hosting a Saturday Farmers' Market. On Sundays, more than 80 antique dealers fill the North Market building.
Shows	Ed Mirvish Theatre Show: In Dreams 	creators of the Broadway and West End smash-hit musical & Juliet. In Dreams tells the story of a country-rock singer who invites her old bandmates to join her for "the party of a lifetime", while keeping her true motivations a secret. Through Roy Orbison's greatest hits, including I Drove All Night, You Got It, Only The Lonely, Crying, Oh, Pretty Woman, and the title song, this unexpected and moving new musical explores our longing for love and connection.	www.mirvish.com	Group savings on 10-29 tickets	Running time: 2 hrs 20 mins Show times: Tues-Sat: 7:30 pm Wed: 1:30 pm Sat & Sun: 2 pm
Shows	Royal Alexandra Theatre Show: Six the Musical 	From Tudor Queens to Pop Icons, the SIX wives of Henry VIII take the microphone to remix five hundred years of historical heartbreak into a Euphoric Celebration of 21st century girl power! This new original musical is the global sensation that everyone is losing their head over! SIX won 23 awards in the 2021/2022 Broadway season, including the Tony Award for Best Original Score (Music and Lyrics) and the Outer Critics Circle Award for Best Musical. The New York Times says SIX "TOTALLY RULES!" (Critic's Pick), and The Washington Post hails SIX as "Exactly the kind of energizing, inspirational illumination this town aches for!"	www.mirvish.com	Group savings on 10-29 tickets	Running time: 80 mins (no intermission) Show times: Tues - Sat: 8 pm Wed: 1:30 pm Sat & Sun: 2 pm
